The Board of Directors
Green Valley Resort Homes

What is a Homeowner’s Association

A Homeowner’s Association is a community association that administers and maintains the common property and common elements of the subdivision development. Each unit owner has title to his own unit and the lot it is situated on. The Association holds the common areas for the common benefit and enjoyment of the members.

How Does the Homeowner’s Association Operate

The Association is governed by a five-member Board of Directors, who are elected by the owners. The Board members are elected to staggered three-year terms of office to assure continuity. The Board elects the officers of the Board. Each owner is a member of the Association and should take an active part in voting on pertinent issues at the Annual Meeting. Owners are also encouraged to attend the regular board meetings. Meeting notices are posted at the pool Ramada bulletin board at least one week in advance of the meeting.

Assessments

To maintain the common facilities, provide essential services and keep an adequate reserve fund for future maintenance and replacement expenditures, annual assessments, paid semi-annually, are paid by each owner in an amount determined by the Board of Directors.

Master Regulations

The legal documents established to govern the Association in the best interest of all owners consists of: Articles of Incorporation, By-Laws, and Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions (CC&R's). These documents detail the owner's rights and obligations (as an owner). The Board of Directors has the power and responsibility of enforcement. Green Valley Resort Homes is a planned community.

Architectural Controls

Architectural controls are provided by the Board of Directors to maintain the integrity and aesthetics of the units and common grounds. All plans for exterior alterations must be submitted to the Architectural Committee via the Association Manager for review and approval.

Insurance

The Association carries an insurance policy that covers the common areas, including the pool and Ramada. It does not cover personal property in units nor liability for accidents, etc. within the privately owned unit. The owner is responsible for insuring their unit for fire and other hazard damage. The Association's governing documents state that owners are responsible for the replacement of their unit.
